

Trans-forming Love

A day of education, dialogue, and prayer about understanding transgender people

Saturday, Nov. 23, 2013

9:00 am - 3:30 pm

Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart

1001 West Joppa Road, Towson, MD 21204

($25 suggested donation - Lunch included)

The goal of the day is to dispel myths and stereotypes about transgender people by gaining sound information from the scientific community and from the life story of a transgender person. The transgender experience will also be explored in the light of faith and spirituality.

The day includes presentations on gender identity development, personal perspectives, legal considerations, and spiritual dimensions. There will be Q & A sessions, small group discussions, and informational handouts. Lunch is provided. Pre-registration required.

Presenters

Edgardo Menvielle, MD is an attending psychiatrist at Children's National Medical Center in Washington, DC.
