

Trans-forming Love

A day of education, dialogue, and prayer
about welcoming transgender people

Thursday, Nov. 16, 2017

9:00 am - 3:30 pm

Congregation of the Sisters of St. Agnes

Founders' Hall

320 County Road K

Fond du Lac, Wisconsin 54937

Content

The goal of the day is to reflect on how we as Catholics can respond pastorally to transgender people. The day includes information on gender identity and development, pastoral outreach, and spiritual dimensions. No prior knowledge is needed. There will be Q & A sessions, small group discussions, and informational handouts. Please bring a bag lunch. Pre-registration required.

Presenter

Francis DeBernardo is the Executive Director of New Ways Ministry, a 40-year old national Catholic ministry of justice and reconciliation for LGBT people and the wider church community. He has over 25 years of experience educating Catholic groups on questions of sexual orientation, gender identity, pastoral outreach, and social justice. He is the editor of Bondings 2.0, a daily blog of Catholic LGBT news and opinion. He was credentialed by the Vatican to cover the 2015 Synod on the Family in Rome.
